Welcome to Montana's second century,

Our Centennial Year was everything we could have asked for. Twelve hundred events held in communities across the state celebrating Montana's first one hundred years and expressing optimism about what the future holds.

There is good reason to be optimistic about Montana's second century. Signs of economic improvement are occurring all across the state. There is a renaissance taking place in our basic industries and new activities are being added to the state's economic profile. There is excitement and enthusiasm throughout Montana.

I have every confidence that whatever challenges lie ahead we can expect the record of achievement and success in both our private and public sectors to continue. With the concerted effort Montanans displayed during our Centennial Year, there is ample reason to believe the State will move closer to realizing its full potential in our second century.

The quality and commitment to service shown by those of you listed in the Montana State Phone Book gives me reason for optimism as well. In my visits to the various state agencies, I have been impressed by your many and varied talents and your dedication to serving Montana. You are a valuable resource for the state. Keep up the good work.

Good luck in our second century, and God bless.

Sincerely,

Stan Stephens
Governor
